

N. Battleford Club Elects '23 Officers

(Special to The Star)

NORTH BATTLEFORD, March 23.—North Battleford Curling Club concluded the season's sport with a smoker held in the club rooms. The gathering was the largest held in connection with curling for many years. After a short address by the retiring president, J. D. Boyd, the following officers were elected for the coming season:

Patron, His Honor Lieut.-Governor Newlands.

Honorary President, A. D. Pickel, M.L.A.

President, H. T. Richardson.

Vice-President, Mayor Fyfe.

Secretary-Treasurer, J. J. Tate.

Chaplain, Rev. R. J. Jones.

Executive: Dr. Panton, M. Esplen, R. Wayte, Jos. Foley and A. Hamilton.

At the close of the election of officers, A. L. MacDonald and J. Abbott moved and seconded a motion that the retiring president, J. D. Boyd, be elected to life membership in the North Battleford Curling Club as a token of appreciation of his devotion to the club during the past year. This was the first of such memberships to be given by the club and the proposal met with sincere and hearty applause.
